Where We've Been...

Strawberry Thanksgivings

Traditional Celebrations held annually continued to bring visitors to the museum from all over the world!

IMLS National Medal

In 2016, Tomaquag Museum is awarded the National Medal for Museum and Library services becoming the first Rhode Island museum ever to receive this prestigious award!

Tomaquag Opens

In 1958, two amazing women join forces to open an innovative history and culture museum to provide first-person Indigenous education!

Nuweetooun School Opens

In 2003 Nuweetooun School at Tomaquag Museum opened, providing K-8 cultural immersion education to tribal children, many of whom return to the Museum today as educators and performers!

NEW HOME

We have outgrown our space and plans are underway for the development of a new facility in our future. Help make this dream a reality!

Where We're Going...

What We Do

Tomaquag Museum is Rhode Island's ONLY Indigenous Museum dedicated to sharing the culture, arts, history, and life ways of the Indigenous people of Southern New England.

How Your Support Helps

Without you, we would not be here. It's a simple as that. As an independent 501(c)(3), Tomaquag Museum relies heavily on private donations to support ongoing operations. Any amount large or small makes a huge difference. You are the reason we have achieve so much!

Together we can make dreams reality.
